NARI CERTIFIED KITCHEN AND BATH REMODELER APPLICATION

Definition of Certified Kitchen and Bath Remodeler: The Kitchen and Bath Remodeler is involved in tasks and has responsibilities beyond the technical production aspects of a project. He/she is responsible for planning, estimating, sales, on the job customer contact and communication, supervision of subcontractors and employees, managing the job site, scheduling, and safety issues. The success of a kitchen or bathroom remodeling project during the production stage is the primary responsibility of the CKBR.

How the Certification Process Works: Candidates must complete and submit this application for consideration by the NARI Certification Board. In addition to completing and submitting an application to qualify for the CKBR certification exam, candidates must have been in the remodeling industry full time for a minimum of 5 consecutive years and have produced an average of at least 4 kitchen and/or bathroom projects per year. Candidates must also have completed a minimum of 16 hours of formal or continuing education within the last 5 years.

Certification Renewal: Certifications are renewed annually. Renewals currently require the attainment of 10 hours of industry related continuing education and participation in chapter/community service projects and the submission of the required and appropriate fees.
